6. Your home page for your class will look like what you see below. You can select student view to see what the students will see when they log in.

The screenshot shows the 'McCreary social studies' home page. The top navigation bar includes 'Home', 'Classes', 'Curriculum', and 'Planner'. Below this, there are tabs for 'Overview', 'Manage Coursework', 'Grades', 'Reports', and 'More'. The main content area is divided into three sections: 'Notifications', 'Calendar', and 'Announcements'. The 'Notifications' section on the left lists various alerts such as 'Welcome Message', 'Alerts', 'Not Passed (0)', 'New Grades (0)', 'Idle Students (1)', 'Past Due: Submitted (0)', and 'Past Due: Not Submitted (0)'. The 'Calendar' section on the right shows a calendar for September 2013. The 'Announcements' section at the bottom right states 'No announcements found.'

7. Student view - Under eText to display the online student text and resources.
Under tools you will find the glossary.
